GENERAL EDUCATION BOARD Shows a Scientific Attitude is Per-meating Education.

New York, March 15.—School results and methods are being scrutinized as never before and "the scientific attitude is permeating education," the annual report of the general eduthe annual report of the general edu-cation board, issued here today, as serts in connection with its summary of educational research work in the United States. The report shows, that we to June 30 last appropriations amounting to $18,302,577 had been made by the board for universities and colleges, general and medical edu-cation and research work in this country. It had on hand June 30 great attraction for today. It is the biggest picture of its kind ever produced.

Fox's comedy, There's Many a Fool, which is but four days old, will be shown Saturday and there is no need to mention its qualities for the past comedies shown here by Fox speak for themselves. The Pathe Weekly will also be shown, making a program Saturday which is the largest ever placed on the movie screen in Norwich.

Friday night there will also be full concert orchestra.

BREED THEATRE Lenore Ulrich in The Intrigue, Five--part Paramount Production, Fea-ture for Today and Saturday.

In addition to the address there will be quartette music, and J. Walton Strahl will lead the singing and render solos.

The doors of the Central Baptist will be opened at 3 o'clock and the meeting will begin promptly at 3.5°. Admission is free to all men.

Kamp Kilkare Vaudeville.

Tonight and Saturday night at 8 o'clock, all roads will lead to the Y. M. C. A., where the annual performance for the benefit of the Boys' camp will be given. A Scottish sword dance and a pajama dance will be among the novelties. A male quartette in a lively sketch, sntitled Up Against it, will provide a near musical novelty. The Elite orchestra will give some of the good old songs, Around the Campfire and Souvenir Shops are acts, which are sure to amuse.

Tickets are only 25 cents. Performance begins at 8.

The Allutropulate will be indeed to the strain of the compare and Souvenir Shops are acts, which are sure to amuse.

The Allutropulate in turn of the present great world struggle is the feature at the Breed theatre today and Saturday.

The Intrigue, a five-part Paramount photoplay starring the beautiful Lenore Ulrich, deals with the secret service and the international intriguing for possession of a marvelous invention—an X-ray gun that annihilates at a distance of 25 miles.

This terrible force for destruction is about to be added to the awful conflict—when a woman turns against all she is pledged to regard, to the things that she holds, most dear and in scenes of great emotion saves humanity and wins great reward.

The Pathe Weekly and a very funny Christic comedy will complete the bill for today and Saturday.

Skovgaard, Denmark's greatest violinies.

Tieketh are only 25 cents. Performance begins at 8.

THE AUDITORIUM.

Double Bill for Today With Marie Bressler in Tillie Wakes Up, Four Reels of Scenes Taken in Austria and Italy Right on the Battle Front and Other Big Fentures.

Today and tomorrow, one of the biggest laughs on the screen will be seen at the Auditorium with Marie Bressler Inking the leading role in Tillie Wakes Up. There is not a dull moment from the opening scene of this five reel connect to the five scene outsity dissolves out leaving the auditorium with Marie Dressler's Lilie and the New York Metropolitan company to the concert going public of this country, I feel confident that I am offering a most attractive and remarkable attraction of great variety. It is a combination of great variety. It is a combination.
